INTRODUCTION

The Sunflower Foundation invites Kansas communities and nonprofit organizations working on behalf of communities to submit proposals for the Sunflower Trails: Paving the Way – From Blazing Trails to Building Community funding initiative.

Sunflower is offering this RFP to support trails as an evidence-based strategy to increase opportunities for outdoor physical activity, strengthen social connections, and improve overall health and quality of life in Kansas communities. This initiative recognizes that communities are at different stages of trail development and provides multiple funding pathways to support local readiness, leadership, and long-term impact.

This RFP includes three competitive grant categories. Applicants should carefully review each category to determine the best fit. Grants will be awarded based on the quality of the proposals, as well as alignment with the current RFP criteria and the foundation's mission. NOTE: Each applicant may apply for only one category. If you are unsure which category is the best fit, please contact Kelli Mark at Kmark@sunflowerfoundation.org.)

BACKGROUND

For more than 20 years, Sunflower Foundation has invested in trails as a strategy to improve public health and community vitality. Since the launch of the Sunflower Trails program in 2005, the foundation has supported more than 200 trail projects across Kansas, primarily through support for direct trail construction.

While this type of support is essential and will continue, Sunflower has learned that communities also benefit from customized planning support, technical assistance from experts, and peer learning from across the state. This RFP reflects that evolution, supporting communities not only to build trails, but to plan, steward, and activate them as lasting community assets.

In 2024, Sunflower made a catalytic investment to support the creation of Kansas Trails, Inc. \(KTI\), a statewide organization dedicated to trail coordination and technical assistance. This RFP complements KTI's role by pairing grant funding with learning opportunities and expert support.

Appendix B – Trail Stewards and Trail Town Learning Series

Definition of a Trail Town

A Trail Town is a community that recognizes and embraces its trail as a vital part of its cultural identity, local character, and future growth. It is a place where residents, businesses, and civic leaders work together to intentionally create welcoming, inclusive, vibrant spaces for trail users – whether they are hikers, cyclists, runners, equestrians, or casual visitors.

A Trail Town not only celebrates the trail as a recreational asset but also integrates it into community life, economic development, and tourism. This means fostering strong connections between the trail and local businesses, promoting opportunities for healthy living, and ensuring that visitors feel invited and supported.

Importantly, a Trail Town develops long-term systems and strategies to sustain trail-related growth—building infrastructure, partnerships, and policies that preserve the trail, enhance user experiences, and contribute to the community’s resilience. In doing so, Trail Towns cultivate a sense of pride, stewardship, and shared benefit that enriches both residents and visitors alike.

Learning Series:

Trail Stewards and Trail Town grantees will participate in the same learning series. While benchmarks for certification may be completed by both Trail Stewards and Trail Town grantees on an optional basis, certification through this pilot program is available exclusively to Trail Town grantees.
